Our Vision Statement

Be the BEST you! Be BILINGUAL!

With honor, integrity and dedication, our vision is to graduate ELL/MLL students who are autonomous critical thinkers, communicators and innovators. We will nurture, inspire and empower students to take ownership of their own learning, take pride in their culture and multi-literacy, as well integrate 21st Century Skills into their life's work so that they may become dynamic, empathetic and successful citizens in our society.

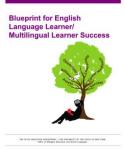

Our Mission:

To accomplish our vision, we will:

- ♥ Cultivate communication with students' families
- Establish clear expectations through the use of models and rubrics
- Use SIOP best practices to support student academic success
- ♥ Incorporate instruction that helps students learn how to tackle authentic 21st Century challenges
- ♥ Differentiate instruction for ALL
- Use stakeholder surveys, diagnostic tools, formative assessments and summative tasks/assessments to inform/drive our instruction, programs, and practice
- ♥ Guide students to self-assess and set specific individual goals
- Make use of available technological resources to assist student learning and application of learning
- ♥ Foster character and socio-emotional health and development

NYS Education Department: BLUEPRINT FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS (ELLS) SUCCESS

http://www.nysed.gov/common/nysed/files/blueprint-for-ell-success.pdf.

The mission of the New York State Education Department's (NYSED) Office of Bilingual Education and Foreign Language Studies (OBE-FLS) is to ensure that all New York State (NYS) students, including English Language Learners (ELLs), attain the highest level of academic success and language proficiency. We strive to ensure that all students' individual educational paths and socio-emotional needs are met in multiple languages leading them to college and career readiness. NYSED believes that all teachers are teachers of ELLs.

In response to the changing global economy, NYSED has adopted the Common Core Learning Standards (CCLS) to provide students, educators, and parents with a set of clear expectations leading to college and career readiness. Over the last decade, there has been an increase in the number of ELLs enrolled in NYS public schools resulting in a current population of 214,378 students who speak over 160 languages. In order for these students to succeed, NYSED needs to provide schools with the appropriate scaffolds, home language assessments and materials so that teachers can provide instruction that will enable students to meet rigorous standards. Under the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education Part 154, the OBE-FLS affirms that it is not permissible to assume that unsupported immersion of ELLs into an English-speaking environment will enable them to succeed academically.

The NYSED P-12 Common Core Learning Standards (CCLS) require that every teacher be prepared to teach academic language and challenging content to all students, including ELLs. All teachers must be skilled in how to support ELLs as they acquire content knowledge while also progressing towards English proficiency. It is imperative that all educators work across the content areas to ensure that all students meet the high demands of the CCLS.

The following principles were carefully developed as a statewide framework aimed to clarify expectations for administrators, policymakers, and practitioners to prepare ELLs for success, beginning in Prekindergarten, to lay the foundation for college and career readiness. These principles are intended to provide guidance, resources, and support to districts, schools, and teachers, as well as to promote a better understanding and appreciation of Bilingual Education, English as a Second Language, and Foreign Language Studies.

The principles that guide the Blueprint for ELLs are:

- 1. All teachers are teachers of English Language Learners, and need to plan accordingly by:
- Designing and delivering instruction that is culturally and linguistically appropriate for all diverse learners, including those with Individualized Educational Programs (IEP).
- Providing integrated language and content instruction to support language development through language-focused scaffolds. Bilingual, ESL, and other content-area teachers must collaborate purposefully and consistently to promote academic achievement in all content areas.

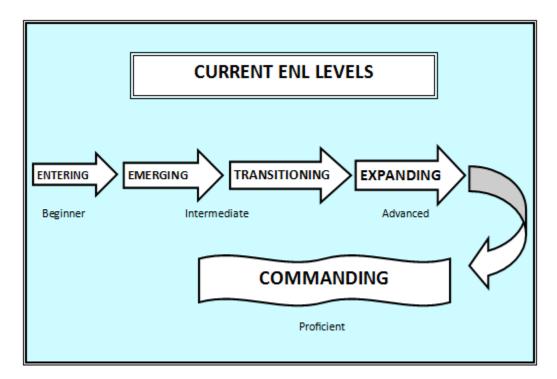

- Utilizing materials and instructional resources that are linguistically, age/grade appropriate, and aligned to the Common Core Learning Standards (CCLS).
- Collaborating with school support personnel and community-based human resources in order to address the multiple needs of ELLs.
- 2. All school boards and district/school leaders are responsible for ensuring that the academic, linguistic, social, and emotional needs of ELLs are addressed by:
- Providing a clear vision for student success that includes high expectations for ELL student achievement and socioemotional development, supported by a purposeful plan of action that provides multiple pathways to college and career readiness through high-quality programs that meet the needs of ELLs.
- Providing high-quality instruction for ELLs.
- Aligning and coordinating fiscal and human resources to ensure that the instructional plan is being effectively implemented.
- Providing high-quality supports, feedback and direction to educators to improve their instructional practice.
- Providing a safe and inclusive learning environment that recognizes and respects the languages and cultures of all students.
- Ensuring districts and school leaders are trained in meeting the needs of ELLs in order to cultivate a school culture of high expectations.
- Providing high-quality instructional and support services to ELLs with disabilities in alignment with their IEPs and current policies.
- 3. Districts and schools engage all English Language Learners in instruction that is gradeappropriate, academically rigorous, and aligned with the New York State Prekindergarten Foundation for the Common Core and P- 12 Common Core Learning Standards by:
- Articulating specific content and language objectives.
- Integrating explicit and implicit research-based vocabulary instruction.
- Providing opportunities for students to discuss content and problem-solve with peers.
- Anchoring instruction by strategically using research-based practices (e.g., multimedia, visuals, graphic organizers, etc.)
- Providing special education supports, services, accommodations and specially designed instruction to meet the specific instructional needs of ELLs with disabilities.
- Designing, selecting, and implementing a high-quality curriculum that meets the needs of Early Learning ELLs, and supports the New York State Prekindergarten Foundation for the Common Core, http://www.p12.nysed.gov/ciai/common core standards/pdfdocs/nyslsprek.pdf.
- Using academic language and content-area supports to strategically move ELLs along the language development continuum utilizing New York State Bilingual Common Core Progressions, http://www.engageny.org/resource/new-york-state-bilingual-common-core-initiative
- 4. Districts and schools recognize that bilingualism and biliteracy are assets, and provide opportunities for all students to earn a Seal of Biliteracy upon obtaining a high school diploma by providing all students with:
- Opportunities to participate in language learning or language support programs that lead to proficiency in English and other languages.
- Opportunities to use and develop academic language and content knowledge both in English and a language other than English, including the student's home language.

- Rigorous Bilingual Education programs for ELLs aimed at maintaining and developing the home language and attaining English proficiency as well as biliteracy.
- Alternate pathways for those students whose home language is that which a Bilingual Education Program does not exist in a district due to the language's low incidence.
 - 5. Districts and schools value all parents and families of ELLs as partners in education and effectively involve them in the education of their children by:
- Providing parents with resources that enable them to make informed decisions about their children's education.
- Providing parents with all pertinent information about their rights and program choices in a language and format that parents can easily understand and access.
- Providing training to parents in English and in their home language on effective strategies to support their children's learning in and out of school.
- Engaging parents as active participants, contributors and cultural liaisons to the school community.
- Sharing with parents and family members the high expectations that schools have established for the education of all ELLs and engaging them in the pursuit and achievement of those expectations.
- Collaborating with the school support personnel and immigrant community based organizations in order to address the multiple needs of families of ELLs.
- 6. District and school communities leverage the expertise of Bilingual, ESL, and Languages Other Than English (LOTE) teachers and support personnel while increasing their professional capacities by:
- Creating intentional learning opportunities for all teachers to collaborate and design instruction, analyze student work, and develop rigorous lessons.
- Providing substantial and sustained opportunities for all teachers to participate in meaningful professional development that addresses the needs of ELLs, including home and new language development.
- 7. Districts and school communities leverage ELLs' home languages, cultural assets, and prior knowledge by:
- Regarding home languages as instructional assets, and using them in bridging prior knowledge to new knowledge while ensuring that content is meaningful and comprehensible.
- Using home languages and cultures of ELLs to promote diversity pursuant to the Dignity for All Students Act (NYS initiative, effective July 2013), http://www.p12.nysed.gov/dignityact/.
- 8. Districts and schools use diagnostic tools and formative assessment practices in order to measure ELLs' content knowledge as well as new and home language development to inform instruction by:
- Using State assessments in conjunction with formative assessments.
- Using State language proficiency data (from the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test [NYSESLAT] and the New York State Identification Test for English Language Learners [NYSITELL]) to understand where ELLs are along the continuum of language development, and how to provide appropriate scaffolds for them according to their proficiency level.
- Employing authentic assessments that require sophisticated uses of language embedded in authentic and rich content.
- Utilizing appropriate tools to assess the needs and progress of ELLs with disabilities.
- Utilizing analytical rubrics that provide feedback on content knowledge and language development.
- Using home language assessments to inform instruction and demonstrate growth in Bilingual Education programs in which the home language is being used.

Guidelines for Bilingual and ENL Teachers

English Language Learners/Multilingual Learners Subgroups

- Newcomer ELLs/MLLs: Students who have been identified as ELLs/MLLs and have received ENL instruction as a component of their Bilingual or ENL program for up to four continuously enrolled school years in the U.S.
- Developing ELLs/MLLs: Students who have been identified as ELLs/MLLs and have received ENL instruction as a component of their Bilingual or ENL program for a total of four to six continuously enrolled school years in the U.S.
- Long Term ELLs/MLLs: Students who have been identified as ELLs/MLLs and have received ENL instruction as a component of their Bilingual or ENL program for more than six continuously enrolled school years in the U.S.
- Students with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE): ELLs/MLLs who have attended schools in the U.S. for less than twelve months and who, upon initial enrollment in schools, are two or more years below grade level in literacy in their home language and/or are two or more years below grade level in math due to inconsistent or interrupted schooling prior to arrival in the U.S.
- ELL/MLL Students with Disabilities (ELLs/MLLs w/ SWD): Students who have been identified as ELLs/MLLs who have also been identified as Students with Disabilities.
- Former ELLs/MLLs: Students who have exited ELL/MLL status and are entitled to receive at least two years of Former ELL/MLL services and two years of testing accommodations on NYS Assessments

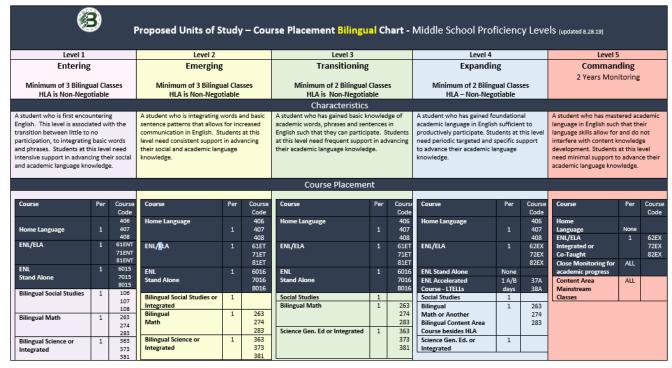

Bilingual and English as a New Language Programs & Instructional Models

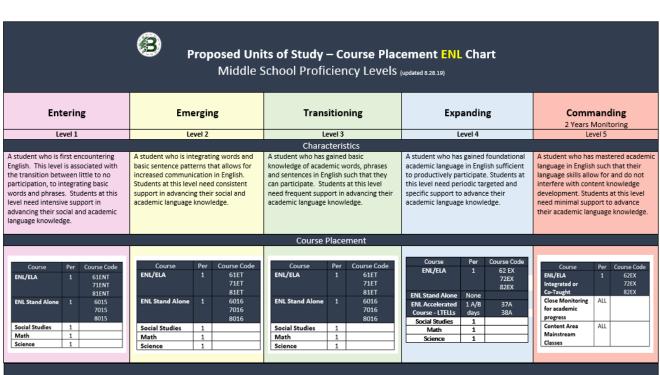

- Transitional Program: Provide grade-level academic work in the student's native language so that the student maintains academic progress while developing English proficiency. Provides instruction in two languages: the language spoken at home and English.
- Integrated ENL: English as a New Language methodologies in content area instruction are either co-taught or individually taught by a dually certified teacher. The maximum allowable grade span is two contiguous grades for grouping instruction in ENL and Bilingual Education programs.
- Stand Alone ENL: ENL instruction with an ESOL teacher to develop the English language needed for academic success. Students are expected to comprehend, speak, read and write in English with some home language support. The maximum allowable grade span is two contiguous grades for grouping instruction in ENL and Bilingual Education programs.
- *ENL Accelerated Course: Long Term ELLs will be enrolled in this Lab AIS course. Instruction will focus on writing and speaking.
- Co-Teaching Model: English as a New Language and General Education teachers work collaboratively to develop lesson plans, establish students' reading/writing goals, and review students' progress towards those goals. Additionally, both teachers help prepare students for assessments. Refer to page 78.

We also have dually certified special education classes and at the high school, we have a science and social studies class being taught by a dually certified teacher, as well as ENL/ELA classes being co-taught.

State ELL/MLL Assessments

- NYSITELL- New York State Identification Test for English Language Learner is the only assessment instrument in New York State for measuring the English language proficiency of a student who may possibly be an ELL/MLL. The results of the NYSITELL are used to determine the type of instructional programs into which the students must be placed. This is a secured test.
- NYSESLAT- (New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test is an annual English language assessment used to determine an ELL/MLL student's proficiency level in English. The student's proficiency levels are classified into five levels: Entering (beginner), Emerging (low intermediate), Transitioning (high intermediate), Expanding (advanced), and Commanding (proficient).
- MLS Literacy SIFE Screener for the Identification of SIFE is a multilingual, reading comprehension module. Semi-adaptive, this online assessment reflects current literature-based curricula and didactic principles from students' home countries. It is used to determine the students' home language literacy skills the students bring with them when they begin school in New York State.

Middle School – Important Notes Regarding the Formation of ENL classes:

- *ENL Stand-Alone classes: only the Entering and ET (Emerging/Transitioning) leveled students will receive a Stand-Alone Period of instruction. This class is to be created on contiguous grades and language proficiency levels. Please refer to specific course codes indicated on the chart below.
 - Grade 6 Stand Alone and/ or Grades 6-7
 - Grades 7-8 Stand-Alone
 - Grade 9-10 Stand-Alone
 - Grades 10-11 Stand-Alone
 - Grades 11-12 Stand-Alone
- * ENL/ELA classes: All ELL students will receive at least one period of ENL/ELA instruction based on their grade and language proficiency level. This course complies with the required units of ENL integrated instruction as determined by the State. When adding ENL/ELA sessions keep in mind that these courses are grade and language proficiency level specific. These classes are either taught by a dually certified teacher or in a Co-teaching setting. Due to the fact that not all buildings have dually certified ELA teachers there is a variation of ENL/ELA course setting scenarios. Please refer to specific course codes indicated on the chart below.
 - ➤ ENL/ELA Grade 6 Entering
 - ENL/ELA Grade 7 Entering
 - ENL/ELA Grade 8 Entering
 - ENL/ELA Grade 6 ET Emerging/Transitioning
 - ENL/ELA Grade 7 ET Emerging/Transitioning
 - ENL/ELA Grade 8 ET Emerging/Transitioning
 - ➤ ENL Grade 6 EX Expanding/Commanding Level
 - ENL Grade 7 EX Expanding /Commanding Level
 - ➤ ENL Grade 8 EX Expanding/Commanding Level
 - *ENL LTELLs Accelerated Course
- * Emerging and Transitional Level Students: Please note that Emerging and Transitioning level students, formerly known as Intermediate level students, will continue to be grouped together. Grouping them together will afford students scoring at the Transitioning level (high intermediate) to receive an additional ENL period.
- * Expanding Level Bilingual Students: These students must be enrolled in a Home Language Arts course and another bilingually taught content area class. Enrolling students in bilingual Math has been used to fulfill this requirement. However, keep in mind that scheduling Bilingual Science or Bilingual Social Studies can also fulfill the State's requirements. By doing this, we can accommodate students proportionately.
- *ENL Accelerated Course: Long Term ELLs will be enrolled in this Lab AIS course. Instruction will focus on writing and speaking.
- * Commanding Level Students: State regulations indicate that students scoring at the Commanding level will need to be monitored for two years. They will need a total of 90 Minutes of Integrated Content instruction on weekly basis. However, it was decided last year that these students will be scheduled in the ENL/ELA EX class together with Expanding level students. This decision was based on the fact that we do not receive the NYSESLAT scores until August and Master schedules have already been created. Also, we do not have dually certified ENL Reading Consultants or an abundance of Content Area dually certified teachers to provide them with monitoring services. Therefore, placing Commanding level students in an ENL/ELA EX class, monitoring services are provided by both Co-teachers and/or dually certified teacher. It is important to note that these students do not take the NYSESLAT again in the spring.

HIGH SCHOOL - Important Notes Regarding the Formation of ENL classes:

*High School ENL classes: Entering level students are required a minimum of 3 units of ENL Instructional time. ET (Emerging/Transitioning) level are required 2 units of study per week. These class are to be created on contiguous grades and language proficiency levels. Expanding level students only need 1 unit of study per week in an ENL/Core content area. Please refer to specific course codes indicated on the chart below.

- Grades 9-10 Entering Stand-Alone ENL Course 50 A
- Grades 10-11 Entering Stand-Alone ENL Course 50 B
- Grades 11-12 Entering Stand-Alone ENL Course 50 C
- ➤ ENL/ELA Grade 9-10 ET Emerging/Transitioning Stand Alone ENL Course 35 A
- ENL/ELA Grade 10-11 ET Emerging/Transitioning Stand Alone ENL Course 35 B
- ENL/ELA Grade 11-12 ET Emerging/Transitioning Stand Alone ENL Course 35 C

*ENL/ELA classes: All ELL students will receive at least one period of ENL/ELA instruction based on their grade and language proficiency level. This course complies with the required units of ENL integrated instruction as determined by the State. When adding ENL/ELA sessions keep in mind that these courses are grade and language proficiency level specific. These classes are either taught by a dually certified teacher or in a Co-teaching setting. Due to the fact that not all buildings have dually certified ELA teachers there are variations of ENL/ELA course setting scenarios. Please refer to specific course codes indicated on the chart below.

These courses are taught by a dually certified ENL/ELA Teacher or Co-taught by an ENL teacher and an ELA teacher.

- ENL/ELA Grade 9-10 Entering Course 34 A
- ENL/ELA Grade 10-11 Entering Course 34 B
- ENL/ELA Grade 11-12 Entering Course 34 C

High School ENL/ELA classes:

- * Emerging and Transitional Level Students: Please note that Emerging and Transitioning level students, formerly known as Intermediate level students, will continue to be grouped together. Grouping them together will afford students scoring at the Transitioning level (high intermediate) to receive an additional ENL period.
- * Expanding Level Bilingual Students: These students must be enrolled in a Home Language Arts course and another bilingually taught content area class. Enrolling students in bilingual Math has been used to fulfill this requirement. However, keep in mind that scheduling Bilingual Science or Bilingual Social Studies can also fulfill the State's requirements. They can also be enrolled in Integrated Contend Area Classes. By doing this, we can accommodate students proportionately.
- ENL Academic Course: Long Term ELLs will be enrolled in this Lab AIS course. Instruction will focus on writing and speaking.

Grade 9 – Course 36 A – This course is designed for LTELLs that are at the Emerging, Transitioning or Expanding level.

Grade 10 – Course 36 B - This course is designed for LTELLs that are at the Emerging, Transitioning or Expanding level.

Grades 11-12 – Course 36 C – This course is designed for Expanding Level students who have not passed the English Regents.

* High School Commanding Level Students: State regulations indicate that students scoring at the Commanding level will need to be monitored for two years. They will need a total of 90 Minutes of Integrated Content instruction on weekly basis. However, these students will be scheduled in an AIS/ELA class together. It is important to note that these students do not take the NYSESLAT again in the spring.

- Students in Expanding ENL classes will take NLA and only one course in Spanish, space permitting.
 Other content area classes should be in English. *
- Students in Commanding ENL classes will take all courses in English.

*Exceptions to this should be discussed with Mrs. Gans.

What is a SIFE student in New York State? Under CR Part 154-2, a Student with Inconsistent/Interrupted Formal Education is an English Language Learners (ELLs) who have attended schools in the United States (the 50 States and the District of Columbia) for less than twelve months and who, upon initial enrollment, is two or more years below grade level in literacy in their home language and/or two or more years below grade level in Math due to inconsistent or interrupted schooling prior to arrival in the United States (the 50 States and the District of Columbia) [154-2.2(y)]. The definition above is inclusive of Low Literacy SIFE, students who have literacy at or below third grade in their home language. This means that they are not yet fluent readers in any language and do not independently use text as a resource to build new knowledge.

SIFE Scheduling

SIFE students are placed in a SIFE specific program to accelerate their learning. Typically, they are enrolled in SIFE specific courses for one year only, unless their level of literacy is below grade 2. In that case, they will remain in the program for an additional year. Students who need an additional year will be recommend by teachers to Ms. Gans. In order to exit SIFE status, not program, students must score at the Transitioning level on the NYSESLAT.

English Language Learners Exit Criteria

- Ways ELLs/MLLs exit ELL/MLL status:
- Grades K-12: Scoring at the Commanding level on the NYSESLAT.
- Grades 3-8: Scoring at the Expanding on the NYSESLAT and 3 or above on the NYS ELA assessment within the same school year.
- Grades 9-12: Scoring at the Expanding level on the NYSESLAT and 65 or above on the Regents Exam in English within the same school year.

Opt-Out Protocol

The parent(s) or guardian(s) of a student designated as an ELL/MLL has the option to withdraw their child from participation in the Bilingual Education Instructional Program. The opt-out protocol requires:

- the parent(s) or guardian(s) meet with the School Principal and the Assistant Superintendent for Bilingual and ENL Programs & Student Intake, Wanda Ortiz Rivera, in order to discuss parental rights and the nature, purpose, and educational value of the program as well as the skills and support provided by and required of personnel.
- at a minimum, that the student participates in the English as a New Language Program.
 - *When the number of eligible students does not require the offering of a bilingual education program in a particular school building, the parent(s) or guardian(s) has the option to transfer their child to another school within the district that does offer a bilingual education program. A parent who chooses not to exercise the transfer option will be informed that his or her child needs to participate in the English as a New Language Program.
 - *There is no opting out from the English as a New Language Program once a child is identified and placed in the ENL Program. New York State requires that all identified ELL/MLL students receive ENL instruction appropriate to their proficiency level. Parents do not have the option to withdraw their child from an ENL program.

Retention of Records

Bilingual/ENL Purple Folder: All guidance counselors and/or Principal's designees must check all cumulative folders at the beginning of the school year and carefully read all forms in the Bilingual/ENL purple folder. Teachers at the secondary level are also encouraged to review Bilingual/ENL Department comments and assessment scores for each of their students found in the CUM Folders. Refer to Appendix pages 50-52.

| These forms include: |
| □ Entitlement Letter (newly identified ELLs/MLLs) □ NYSITELL Scores □ Bilingual/ENL Department NYSESLAT Letter – Continued Entitlement Letter □ NYSESLAT Scores Report □ Non-Entitlement Letter (if applicable) □ Bilingual/ENL Evaluation Placement Form □ Home Language Questionnaire □ ELL /MLL Placement Form □ Intake Writing Sample □ Intake Assessments, i.e. math and/or MLS (if applicable) |
| Parent/Guardian Communication |
| NYSESLAT Parent/Guardian Reports: All ELL/MLL students who took the NYSESLAT the previous May will receive copies of the NYSESLAT Parent Reports and Parent Notification Letters . Building Principals/Office of ENL Department Chairperson will send one copy home immediately upon receipt and file a copy in the CUM Folder. Refer to Appendix page 61-62 . |
| Parent /Guardian Notification Letters: These letters will be used for all students who do not receive the NYSESLAT. Refer to Appendix page 63 . |
| NYSITELL Parent /Guardian Reports: The original is to be sent home with the student and a copy needs to be filed in the CUM Folder. |
| Meet the Teacher Night: Teachers should review the name of the particular school, review the Parents' Bill of Rights , show the parents how to read the NYSESLAT Parent Report, and go over the Comprehensive Guide for the Parents of ELLs/MLLs. Refer to Appendix page 91 . |
| Bilingual & ENL Parent Handbook: May be used as a reference pertaining to any questions about the Bilingual/ENL Programs. Each student should receive a copy to bring home. Plaza Comunitaria liaisons are expected to provide a parent orientation meeting to newly enrolled parents. For a list of Plaza Comunitaria liaisons, please refer to Appendix page 88. |

Checkpoints

- ✓ Student Placement: It is of the utmost importance for teachers and guidance counselors to check the Bilingual/ENL Spreadsheet and the NYSESLAT or NYSITELL score reports to ensure proper placement of students. Commanding students may be serviced in a content-area classroom, taught by a dually certified teacher as part of the two year monitoring service. Commanding students do not take the NYSESLAT Test.
- ✓ SIFE Students in Grades 6-12: Because the number of SIFE students has increased, it is crucial that guidance counselors and SIFE teachers read the Bilingual Placement Forms for all the new entrants (refer to the student's CUM Folder). The Woodcock Muñoz test, parts of the Brigance Assessment, and the Multilingual Screener (MLS) are administered to these students and the results should be used to differentiate instruction.
- ✓ Identification of SIFE Students: All SIFE students will be identified at the time of registration. It is important for guidance counselors and SIFE teachers to review each student's placement forms and Cumulative Folder.
- ✓ Attendance: All ENL and Bilingual teachers must take attendance daily using e-school.
- ✓ Class Rosters: All ENL and Bilingual teachers must keep a class roster with NYSESLAT Scores and English proficiency levels in their lesson plan books. This will facilitate the submission of student counts at the end of every month. Refer to
- ✓ Schedules: ENL and Bilingual teachers need to complete a Class Schedule which includes: school, teacher's first and last name, both A and B Week schedule, description of class, ROOM #, and students' language proficiency levels. Refer to page Appendix 68.

Lesson Plans and Observations

- ✓ Bilingual teachers will use the New Language Arts Progressions and Home Language Arts Progressions in their lesson plans to identify standards and linguistic demands. ENL Teachers will use the New Language Arts Progressions in their lesson plans to identify standards and linguistic demands.
- ✓ Lesson plans must be submitted to building principals and/or Department Chairperson on a weekly basis. * Stay tuned for a new procedure involving Office 365 teams.
- ✓ Walkthroughs and formal observations will be conducted as per the BTA Contract. All pertinent forms must be submitted through Right Path. It is recommended that teachers become familiar with the NYSUT Teacher Practice Rubric in order to maximize student learning. For a copy of the templates, refer to Appendix pages 79-86.

Grading Guidelines for Bilingual and ENL Students

- ✓ ELLs/MLLs must be graded based on the mastery of the standards.
- ✓ General Ed and ENL teachers should complete report cards collaboratively, if applicable.

MYTH vs. FACT

Bilingual Language Development

MYTH

Speaking 2 or more languages to a child can "confuse" them, so it is better to only speak 1 language.

It is better for families to only speak the language taught in school to their children, even if they do not speak the language well.

> Young bilingual children are delayed in learning language compared to peers who only speak 1 language.

Bilingual children should not mix parts of the languages they speak.

Children become bilingual just by listening to people around them speaking the second language.

FACT

All children are capable of learning multiple languages, including children with developmental delays and learning disabilities.

Families should speak the language they are most comfortable speaking, so children are given rich linguistic models and can interact best with other members of their community

Bilingualism does NOT cause language delays, and has been shown to improve children's ability to learn new words, identify sounds, and problem-solve.

"Translanguaging" occurs when individuals grammatically mix aspects of the languages they speak. It fosters cultural and metalinguistic awareness.

Learning language is an activ process that requires many opportunities for children to practice communicating in context with others. Listening and responding are both cruci for developing competence.

Bilingual & English as a New Language Instructional Models and Core Materials

→ Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (SIOP): The SIOP Model consists of eight major components: preparation, building background (schema), comprehensible input strategies, interaction, practice/application, lesson delivery, and review/evaluation.

★ Preparation

- Include specific language and content objectives for students: Content Objective describes what the students will learn during the lesson and Language Objective is the vehicle by which the students learn and demonstrate/communicate their learning: i.e. listening-role play, speaking-justify, reading-preview and predict, and writing-summarize.
- Select appropriate content concepts that are age appropriate and appropriate students' educational background as well as their level of language proficiency.
- o Identify supplemental materials to use: i.e. manipulatives, visuals, multimedia, demonstrations, charts, graphs, graphic organizers, etc.
- Create performance tasks/activities that enable students to make connections between their own knowledge and experiences with the new information/concepts being taught as well as application and practice in reading, writing, and speaking.

★ Building Background

- o Connect concepts to students' backgrounds and experiences and connect previous learned concepts to new concepts.
- Select and emphasize key vocabulary (critical to understanding) and present new vocabulary in context.
- Create Word Walls and display words alphabetically or by concept.

★ Comprehensible Input

- Use speech that is appropriate to the students' language proficiency and speak slowly, enunciate, repeat more frequently.
- o Explain and clarify concepts using different practices: modeling, visuals, hands-on activities, gestures, body language, etc.
- Avoid idiomatic expressions and sarcasm unless it is directly a part of the learning objectives.
- Present and explain instructions in a sequential step-by step manner, modeling/demonstrating when needed.
- Allow students to explain/restate instructions to their peers.
- Restate a student response to model correct English usage and grammar.
- Model critical thinking skills, think alouds.
- Use a variety of high order thinking questions and include open-ended questions to promote discussion among students.
- Create opportunities for student discussion and interaction for students to practice the language, providing instruction in how to utilize sentence prompts/frames to discuss their points and thoughts.
- Offer appropriate wait time.

★ Strategies

Include techniques, methods, and processes that enhance comprehension for learning and retaining information. Students should be provided with ample opportunities to use learning strategies which have been taught through explicit instruction. The goal is for students to become more independent in self-monitoring their own learning strategies, i.e. summarizing, close reading, relating summarizing to previous predictions and to further learning.

★ Interaction

Through meaningful interaction, students can practice speaking and making themselves understood by asking and answering questions, negotiating meaning, clarifying ideas, and other techniques: vary the grouping configurations, teach students the language required to ask and offer elaborate responses, encourage and expect elaborate questions and responses, and allow students to rehearse.

★ Practice/Application

 Lessons should include multiple opportunities to use hands on materials or manipulatives to learn and practice the content and should also include activities for students to apply content and language knowledge in their learning: i.e. solving a problem within a group.

★ Lesson Delivery

- Lesson delivery reflects how well the content and language objectives (learning targets and success criteria) are supported during the lesson, to what extent the students are involved and engaged and how appropriate the pace is to the students' abilities.
 - For lesson delivery to be considered effective, it should be well planned; establish clear explanation of academic tasks or instructions; meet language proficiency and learning needs of the students; minimize off task activities such as making announcements, passing papers etc.; allocate appropriate time for the academic task; exhibit strong classroom management skills; provide opportunities for students to apply learning in relevant and meaningful ways; include active student involvement in planning and implementation of activities and strategies; and set aside 90% to 100% of the time period for students to be actively engaged in activities that relate directly to material that they will be tested on.

★ Review/Evaluation

Throughout the lesson, and especially at the end, it is important to determine how well students have understood and have retained key vocabulary and content concepts. The determination of whether to move on or offer additional instruction and support is the key to effective assessment and instruction. Effective sheltered instruction involves reviewing important concepts, providing constructive feedback through clarification, and making instructional decisions based on student response. Instructing how and expecting students to self-assess, self-analyze and set individual goals/focus areas is critical.

Bilingual & English as a New Language Instructional Models and Core Materials

- → SIOP-Collins Writing Program: K-12 program that presents a SIOP connected model for writing across the curricula. Its main focus is "write more-grade less" by defining five types of writing assignments and the outcomes expected for each. It is designed as a unified, research-based program that can be used in all classrooms in all subject areas. This program challenges students to think on paper while paying special attending to Focus Correction Areas (FCAs) within the Five Types of Writing.
- → Co-Teaching: The instructional arrangement in which a general education teacher and an a TESOL certified teacher deliver core instruction along with specialized instruction, as needed, to a diverse population of English Language Learners/Multilingual Learners in a single space. Teachers share the responsibility of imbedding both content area objectives and language objectives within each lesson.
- → INSIDE, REACH and EDGE by National Geographic: Standards-based and literacy instruction with specialized strategies for English learners and struggling readers in grades 6-9. The program provides comprehensive instruction and accessible content for secondary school students who have not mastered essential reading, writing, and language skills and who are typically reading two or more years below grade level. Inside covers Common Core State Standards with a spiraling curriculum and overlapping readabilities designed to quickly and effectively move students to grade level achievement. The direct, spiraling instruction in text structures, reading strategies, comprehension skills, language, vocabulary, and writing moves students through the levels to academic success.
- → Springboard (grade 6): an instructional program that offers core instructional materials in print and digital that are fully aligned to state standards, Advanced Placement (AP) coursework, and the SAT Suite of Assessments. It helps students build extensive content knowledge with close reading and analysis of texts, critical viewing of select films, wide-ranging independent reading, and lively, engaging classroom discussion. Language skills and knowledge are incorporated as part of an integrated approach to reading, writing, speaking, and listening.
- → Prentice Hall Literature and Reader's Journey by Pearson (grades 7-8): A comprehensive English Language Arts curriculum that prepares students for the literacy demands of the 21st Century through a powerful combination of explicit instruction, inquiry-based learning, contemporary and relevant literature and informational texts, real-world writing and projects, and supportive technology. The programs help provide conceptual framework for designing curriculum maps that engage students in inquiry, promote the transfer of learning, and uncover the "Big Ideas" of content at the middle level. Both programs area aligned to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) and include a diverse array of genres including short story, poem, myth, info graphic, magazine article, and play.

- → Prentice Hall Language Central by Pearson (grades 7-8): Aligned with Prentice Hall Literature and Reality Central for Grades 6–10, this program includes instruction to help English learners delve deeper into the critical vocabulary and comprehension skills taught in the core program.
- → Reality Central (grades 7-8): A nonfiction anthology featuring short, high interest, readings on topics and issues students encounter every day. Selections are written slightly below grade level to reach all readers and focus on vocabulary development, pre and post reading support, connection to background knowledge for success in literature program, targeted writing instruction, and discussion opportunities.
- → Scholastic Read 180: A comprehensive curriculum, instruction, assessment, and professional development proven to raise reading achievement for struggling readers in grades 5 12 at the elementary and secondary school level. This program is designed for students reading two or more years below grade level. Read 180 leverages adaptive technology to individualize instruction for students and provide powerful data for differentiation for teachers. Selected classes in grades 5-12 use Read 180 Next Generation. Stage A is used at the elementary level, stage B at the middle school, and stage C at the Freshman Center. This program is also used to remediate special education students.
- → System 44 by Scholastic: A foundational reading program that incorporates Instructional technology that offers intensive intervention and support for the most challenged readers at the middle and high school level. System 44 helps students understand that the English language is a finite system of 44 sounds and 26 letters that can be mastered. The program invites students to "crack the code" and join the community of readers, and provides educators with a comprehensive set of tools to meet this challenge. The program provides validated assessment for screening and placement, research-based phonics instruction, is highly motivating and age-appropriate using adaptive technology.
- → Keystone: A multi-level program designed for English learners and struggling readers whose academic achievement is two or more years below grade level. A transition to mainstream coursework across the curriculum is achieved though explicit, intensive, and focused instruction that accelerates students' language acquisition, reading comprehension, vocabulary, and oral and written communication skills.
- → Keys to Learning: Provides middle and high school newcomers with the skills and strategies to make a great start in reading, writing, and grammar. Research-based and standards-driven, this program focuses on the areas of reading practice including content readings in social studies and science as well as practice in functional language learning strategies.
- → World Link: An online resource that helps learners communicate fluently and confidently in English. It develops language skills through use of dynamic vocabulary, essential grammar, engaging topics and fascinating images.

- → Bridges: Bridges to Academic Success is an intervention for newcomer adolescents who arrive in US schools with limited academic preparation and low levels of home language literacy.
- → IRLA/ENIL for SIFE studenta: American Reading Company's Independent Reading Level Assessment is a formative assessment for reading (English and Spanish) that changes the daily behaviors of teachers, students and administrators. It offers specific and actionable data that tells the teacher where a student is, why, and the sequence of skills/behaviors he/she needs to learn next in order to accelerate reading growth.
- → RIGOR: Reading Instructional Goals for Older Readers is designed for ELLs/MLLs who read at a preliterate or early-grade reading level in English and/or their native language. RIGOR develops a student's language, literacy and content understanding. It is available in both English and Spanish skill bags. The five components are the essential building blocks of academic language and literacy that Students with Interrupted Formal Education (SIFE) lack.
- → Rosetta Stone: Allows learners with limited language skills to refine and expand their existing language skills. Selectable learning paths and workshops support specific organization and learner needs. Customizable.
- → iReady: combines a valid and reliable growth measure and individualized instruction in a single online adaptive diagnostic program. It pinpoints students' needs down to the sub-skill level.
- → NYSESLAT Preparation Workbooks: All Bilingual and ENL students in grades K-12 will receive a workbook to be used as an instructional tool to prepare students with the format of the NYSESLAT. Teachers should include this workbook in their ENL instruction at least once a week.
- → NEWSELA: Newsela builds reading comprehension through Lexile- leveled current event articles, real-time assessments and actionable insights.
- → Escalera for NLA SIFE a streamlined curriculum for non-readers 3rd grade and up Purpose: designed to instill confidence as students quickly master the laddered/sequential curriculum and serves to reinforce decoding skills, build fluency and basic comprehension, providing a highly-accelerated jumpstart into reading.

Notes to Teachers

- Teaching of vocabulary words implemented by both teachers.
- Practice Book shared by both teachers: students will bring the consumable to both classes.
- 8th grade: If you have an Emerging or Transitioning student who was previously in Entering, begin with Units 1-4 review and strategically form your groups. Use supplemental resources.
- Lower ET students can take advantage of the Rosetta Stone curriculum and resources.
- ENL Stand Alone teachers use NYSESLAT workbooks for writing component.

District Related ELL/MLL Assessments and Reports

- NYSESLAT L2RPT Reports: Building level meetings will be scheduled with building principals, Bilingual, and ENL and Co-teachers to analyze the annual NYSESLAT results.
- INSIDE Placement Test, Assessments, and Diagnostics by National Geographic: Phonemic Awareness Tests and Unit Quick Checks (Levels Fundamentals 1 & 2), Selection Tests (Levels A-C), and Unit Test provide affective and metacognitive measures, Language acquisition and writing rubrics, and portfolio forms. Scan-and-score or test online with immediate graphic reports for tests with links to re-teaching.
- EDGE eAssessments: Edge e-Assessment gives teachers immediate feedback on students' performance. With access to a variety of in-depth reports and Reteaching Lessons, teachers can make sound instructional decisions for their students and facilitates test scoring and score analysis
- Collins Writing Program: Types 1-5 Writing
- NYSESLAT Writing Samples: In-class formative assessments
- Writing Portfolio: A complete compilation of student writing throughout the year to be used for the end-of-year final exam writing portfolio assessment.
- ELA Fall & Spring Writing Sample: Used for a score for the fall/spring comparative
- On Demand Writing Samples: All Bilingual students are required to write an On Demand Writing Sample in English with the exemption of Entering and Emerging level students who are at the early stages of language production and cannot speak English yet. Those students will write a sample in Spanish. Both fall and spring samples need to be in the same language (i.e. if the fall sample was in Spanish, the spring sample needs to be in Spanish). *Note for students whose language proficiency has increased, please include an English writing sample.
- Woodcock Muñoz Exam: Entrance exam for SIFE Students at Intake.
- Brigance: Parts of this exam will be administered to entering SIFE students at Intake.
- MLS (Multilingual Literacy Screener): Entrance exam for SIFE students at Intake.
- IRLA Placement & Assessments: Entrance exam for SIFE students at Intake.
- Computer Based Reading Assessments/Program Enrollment:
 - a. Emerging, Transitioning, Expanding, and Commanding level students in grades 6-12 will need to take the Reading Inventory, formerly known as the Scholastic Reading Inventory to assess Lexile level.
 - b. SPI/System 44: For students who score below a 400 on the SRI
 - c. Expert 21: Grade 6 students only
 - d. Entering/SIFE level students will be enrolled in Rosetta Stone

Essential Components of an ENL/Bilingual Classroom Checklist

Classroom Environment

- ▼ KNOW your students
- Use of district adopted instructional materials and supplemental resources
- ▼ Lessons need to include all four language modalities: listening, speaking, reading and writing, including both language and content objectives
- Students need to speak in complete/elaborated sentences appropriate to their language proficiency.
- Instructional groups and differentiation of instruction are present by language proficiency levels, cooperative groups and/or individual needs
- Instructional modifications that are appropriate and reflect grade and language proficiency levels of students: paraphrasing, use of prompts/sentence starters, use of idioms and figurative language
- There is evidence of SIOP and/or scaffolding strategies: modeling, think alouds, visuals/graphic organizers, increased wait time for student responses, frequent comprehension checks, clarification/feedback and contextualized vocabulary instruction
- Vocabulary words need definition and visuals to accompany them when appropriate
- Student prior knowledge is used to connect new concepts and skills
- Adjust instruction based on on-going formative assessment
- No Round Robin Reading; Guided reading, close reading, and Collins Writing is practiced on a daily basis
- Questioning techniques need to go beyond the "simplistic" Questions should encourage higher order critical thinking, understanding, expression, and elaboration
- ▼ Include many opportunities for students to speak and write on a daily basis at all language proficiency levels: ACCOUNTABLE TALK
- Students need frequent opportunities to reflect, turn and talk, discuss, question, clarify, and write about the lesson
- Co-teachers are encouraged to set aside a common time for communication, collaboration and planning
- ▼ TA's will meet with teachers to designate specific expectations and decide on how to best work with students, maximizing quality time spent with students.

Instruction

- ▼ Interactive Word Walls in both languages
- Print Rich Environment Bilingual teachers will color code English and Spanish areas; room must be labeled (ENL Teachers are encouraged to do the same), and student work needs to be displayed
- ▼ Home Language/English Dictionary Use
- ♥ Standards-based lesson objectives, (I can...) are clear and displayed
- Language and Content Objectives need to be visible for students and observers
- Classroom needs to reflect the curriculum being taught
- Lexile scores in English and Reading Proficiency Levels in Spanish when applicable
- Writing Folders-dated student writing pieces: On Demand Personal Narratives, District fall/spring writing samples, and all other writing completed by student, and evidence on the use of scoring rubrics
- Reading / Writing Journals
- Conference Notes
- Lesson Plans Submit to Department Chairperson/Office of Bilingual & ENL (pribeiro@bufsd.org)
- ♥ Sentence Frames/Prompts
- Welcome NEW students and involve them in the lesson: student helper, repetition, welcome ambassadors/packet, etc.

New York State Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards

In 2015, New York State (NYS) began a process of review and revision of its current English Language Arts (ELA) Learning Standards adopted in January 2011. The New York State Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards (Revised 2017) were developed through numerous phases of public comment as well as virtual and face-to-face meetings with committees consisting of NYS educators, teachers of English Language Learners/Multilingual Learners and Students with Disabilities, parents, curriculum specialists, school administrators, college professors, and experts in cognitive research. These revised standards reflect the collaborative efforts and expertise among all constituents involved.

The New York State Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards (Revised 2017) consist of revisions, additions, deletions, vertical movement, and clarifications of the current English Language Arts Standards. They are defined as the knowledge, skills, and understanding that individuals can and do habitually demonstrate over time when exposed to high-quality instructional environments and learning experiences.

To compare the changes between the 2011 New York State P-12 Common Core Learning Standards and the 2017 Next Generation Learning Standards view the ELA Learning Standards Crosswalks.

New York State Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards Crosswalks

http://www.nysed.gov/curriculum-instruction/teachers/next-generation-ela-learning-standards-crosswalks

The crosswalk documents are a reference tool for educators and parents to efficiently compare the changes between the 2011 New York State P-12 Common Core Learning Standards for ELA and the 2017 Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards. The crosswalks can assist educators in the preliminary work required in assessing the scope of the content changes and the impact those changes will have on student learning, locally devised curriculum, instruction and instructional resources. While the crosswalks are valuable as a reference, they do not substitute for a deeper, more comprehensive understanding of the New York State Next Generation English Language Arts Learning Standards.

The Grade-level Crosswalk uses the full text of both sets of standards so that readers can review and compare the two sets side-by-side. Strike-through and bolded text can be seen throughout in order to highlight content differences and wording modifications between the two sets of standards.

New York State Bilingual Common Core Initiative

New York State Bilingual Common Core Initiative

Beginning in Spring 2012, NYSED launched the Bilingual Common Core Initiative to develop new English as a Second Language and Native Language Arts Standards aligned to the Common Core. As a result of extensive research and a three year process, NYSED has developed two sets of resources known as New Language Arts Progressions (NLAP) and Home Language Arts Progressions (HLAP) for every NYS Common Core Learning Standard (CCLS) in every grade. The NLAP and HLAP provide a framework for teachers to ensure that students in English as a New Language and Bilingual Education programs are meeting the CCLS. The Progressions include five levels of language proficiency and demonstrate a trajectory of language learning and teaching.

Why the Change?

Terminology is reflective of NYS's multilingual student population and diverse ways in with languages are learned and taught in NYS. New levels align with research about stages of language and literacy development. See Theoretical Foundations document for more information.

Theoretical Foundations of the NYS Bilingual Common Core

Developed in consultation with a New York State Steering Committee and a National Advisory Group of ELL experts, this document details the research and theory that underlies NYS's theory of language development that guides the Initiative's New and Home Language Arts Progressions.

Teacher's Guide to Implement the Bilingual Common Core Progressions

This document explains the New Language and Home Language Arts Progressions, breaking down each component and explaining how teachers can apply the resources in their classrooms.

Bloom's Taxonomy Across Stages of Language Acquisition

LINKING THINKING, LANGUAGE FUNCTIONS, AND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION

Source: Adapted from Bloom's Taxonomy, Halliday's Language Functions, and Krashen's Stages of Language Acquisition.

| Levels of thinking | Language use across stages of second-language acquisition moves from simple to complex in grammatical tenses, forms, vocabulary, etc. | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|--|---|---|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| and language functions Level of thinking and academic language move from concrete recall to more complex and more abstract in any undertaking. | Preproduction 0-6 months Nonverbal response. Minimal comprehension. Nods yes or no. Draws and point. | Early Production 6-12 months 1-2-word response. Limited comprehension. Participates using key words and familiar phrases. Uses present tense verbs. | Speech Emergence 1-3 yrs. Phrases or short sentences. Good comprehension. Can produce simple sentences. Makes grammar & pronunciation errors. Frequently misunderstands jokes. | Intermediate Fluency 3-5 yrs. Longer and more complex sentences. Excellent comprehension. Makes few grammatical errors. | Advanced Fluency 5-7 yrs. Near native-like. | | | | | | |
| EVALUATION Appraise, argue, assess, attach, choose, compare, defend, estimate, judge, predict, rate, select, support, value, evaluate | Teacher mismatches animal with its environment and asks: Is this the right environment? Find the right environment. | What are the best materials for the duck to build a nest? | What makes a good home for a bear? (Examine settings and evaluate: "A cave makes a good home.") | What would happen if you put a worm in the desert? | Recommend a different environment for a mother duck to raise her ducklings. Defend your choice. | | | | | | |
| SYNTHESIS Arrange, assemble, collect, compose, construct, create, design, develop, formulate, manage, organize, plan, prepare, propose, set up | Point to the animals that live in the soil. | Say the names of the animals that live in the soil. | How could you change a scorpion so it could swim? | What would a clam need to survive in the desert? | How would you protect the wildlife in a forest where hiking was very popular? | | | | | | |
| ANALYSIS Analyze, appraise, calculate, categorize, compare, contrast, criticize, differentiate, discriminate, distinguish, examine, experiment, question, test | Show me an animal that cannot live in the forest. | Name the parts of a fish that help it live in the water. | How are raccoons and squirrels the same? How are they different? | How does a bear use its claws to catch fish? Gather berries? | Why do you think a bear hibernates in winter? | | | | | | |
| APPLICATION Apply, choose, demonstrate, dramatize, employ, illustrate, interpret, operate, practice, schedule, sketch, solve, use | Show me what would happen if we put the fish in the desert. | Tell me what would happen if we put a fish in the desert. | How could you change the body of a fish to make it fly? | How would you capture and transport scorpions to a zoo? | How would a deer camouflage itself in the forest during the winter? In the desert? | | | | | | |
| COMPREHENSION Classify, describe, discuss, explain, express, identify, indicate, locate, recognize, report, restate, review, select, translate | Show me where a deer lives. | Tell me which animals eat meat. | Why is a toad the color it is? | Explain how a snake catches its prey. | Why do fish need gills to live in the water? How do gills work? | | | | | | |
| KNOWLEDGE Arrange, order, define, duplicate, label, list, name, recognize, relate, recall, repeat, reproduce | Where is the raccoon? | What is the name of this animal? | What are the body parts of a turtle? | Give the definition of a mammal. | Tell me everything you know about a clam. | | | | | | |

Language Objectives with Expressive Verbs and Specified Language Targets

-2011 Kate Kinsella, Ed. D. and Tonya Ward Singer

Related to Reading Standards:

Students will...

- Make predictions using future tense, and text feature vocabulary (e.g. headings, captions).
- Formulate pre-reading questions using appropriate question structure.
- Articulate main idea and details using key vocabulary: main idea, detail.
- Prioritize arguments in a text using target adjectives: important, essential, or significant.
- Specify bias in a text by identifying adjectives and opinions.
- Articulate cause and effect relationships within a thinking map using subordinating conjunctions: since, because, when.
- Describe a character's emotions using precise adjectives.
- Retell a narrative story using past tense verbs and adverbs of time (e.g. the next day, later that week)
- Read text passages containing target vocabulary with prosody
- Ask and answer "how" guestions about main events using the past-tense.

Related to Writing Standards:

Students will...

- Express an opinion in a topic sentence for a persuasive paragraph using strong verbs.
- Write a persuasive paragraph using correct present and conditional verb tenses.
- Articulate a position using strong present tense verbs: support maintain contend, believe.
- Qualify a position using adverbs: agree/disagree...somewhat, entirely, absolutely, completely.
- Justify a position using relevant details and complete sentences.
- Develop a supporting detail using complete and varied sentences.
- Replace everyday vocabulary with precise word choices.
- Write a personal narrative using regular and irregular past-tense verbs.
- Provide anecdotes to support a pint using regular and irregular past-tense verbs.
- Summarize a non-fiction text using general present tense and citation verbs.
- Revise sentence fragments into complex sentences.
- Write habitual present tense sentences about a classmate's routines using correct pronouns and subject verb agreement.
- Provide cohesion between sentences in exposition with appropriate transitional expressions.
- Compose complex and simple sentences to support points in expository and persuasive writing.
- Utilize precise word choices to convey actions, feelings descriptors in narrative writing.
- Utilize vocabulary, syntax, and grammar reflective of academic register within writing.
- Edit final drafts of sentences and paragraphs for appropriate tense, subject-verb agreement, pronoun reference, fragments and run-on sentences.

Language Objectives with Expressive Verbs and Specified Language Targets

Related to Classroom Discussion (Listening and Speaking):

Students will...

- Restate a partner's response using paraphrasing expressions (e.g. so what you are saying is)
- Listen for and point out similarities in ideas using target language: My idea is similar to?
- Report a group consensus using past-tense citation verbs: determined, concluded.
- Articulate a perspective using strong present tense verbs: believe, agree/disagree, support.
- Analyze word parts to determine meaning using precise terms: prefix, suffix, root word.
- Define the unit concept stereotype using complete sentences and target vocabulary.
- Listen for and record precise adjectives used by classmates to describe a character's reactions.

Linguistic Scaffolds for Writing Effective Language Objectives

-2011 Kate Kinsella, Ed. D. and Tonya Ward Singer

An effectively written language objective:

- Stems from the linguistic demands of a standards-based lesson task
- Focuses on high-leverage language that will serve students in other contexts
- Uses active verbs to name functions/purposes for using language in a specific student task
- Specifies target language necessary to complete the task
- Emphasizes development of expressive language skills, speaking, and writing, without neglecting listening and reading

Sample Language Objectives:

- I can articulate main idea and details using target vocabulary: topic, main idea, detail.
- I can describe a character's emotions using precise adjectives.
- I can revise a paragraph using correct present tense and conditional verbs.
- I can report a group consensus using past tense citation verbs: determined, concluded.
- I can use present tense persuasive verbs to defend a position: maintain, contend.

Language Objective Frames:

- I can (function: active verb phrase) using (language target).
- I can use (language target) to (function: active verb phrase).

Active Verb Bank to Name Functions for Expressive Language Tasks

| Articulate | Defend | Express | Narrate | Share |
|------------|-----------|----------|----------|-----------|
| Ask | Define | Identify | Predict | State |
| Compose | Describe | Justify | React to | Summarize |
| Compare | Discuss | Label | Read | Rephrase |
| Contrast | Elaborate | List | Recite | Revise |
| Debate | Explain | Name | Respond | Write |

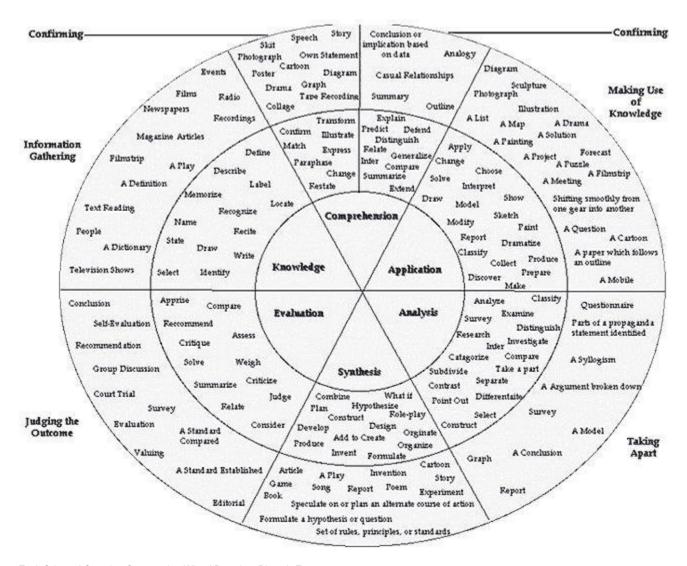

Language objectives are most effectively communicated with verb phrases such as the following:

- I can point out similarities between...
- I can express agreement...
- I can articulate events in sequence...
- I can state opinions about...

Sample Noun Phrases Specifying Language Targets

| Academic vocabulary | Complete sentences | Subject-verb agreement |
|---------------------|-----------------------|------------------------|
| Precise adjectives | Complex sentences | Personal pronouns |
| Citation verbs | Clarifying questions | Past-tense verbs |
| Noun phrases | Prepositional phrases | Gerunds (verb+ing) |

Academic Language Functions and Demands

Academic language offers students ways to participate in their learning.

Language Functions: The content and language focus of the learning task represented by the active verbs within the learning outcomes.

WHAT STUDENTS DO

Language Demands: Specific ways that academic language (vocabulary, discourse, syntax) is used by students to participate in learning task through reading, writing, listening, and/or speaking to demonstrate their understanding.

• TOOLS STUDENTS USE TO PARTICIPATE IN THEIR LEARNING

- Vocabulary: Includes words and phrases that are used within disciplines including: (1) words and phrases with subject-specific meanings that differ from meanings used in everyday life (e.g., table); (2) general academic vocabulary used across disciplines (e.g., compare, analyze, evaluate); and (3) subject-specific words defined for use in the discipline.
- Discourse: includes the structures of written and oral language, as well as how members of the discipline talk, write, and participate in knowledge construction. Discipline-specific discourse has distinctive features or ways of structuring oral or written language (text structures) that provide useful ways for the content to be communicated.
- Syntax: The set of conventions for organizing symbols, words, and phrases together into structures (e.g., sentence frames, graphs, tables).

Planning a Lesson: Begin with the end in mind! Start with content standards and objectives. What are the verbs? What are students expected to do with language? What will they produce to show they've done it?

- Identify the language function: content and language objectives/" I can..." / "Students will..."
- Identify the language demands.
- Identify the performance task/assessment/success criteria.

ACCOUNTABLE TALK holds students accountable:

Accountable to the Learning Community is about how students talk to and with one other. When they speak, they speak loudly and clearly so everyone can hear. If not, chances are they'll be asked politely to repeat/explain. When students listen, they do not simply think about what they will say next. They focus on classmates' contributions so they can understand, challenge, build upon, and refine one another's ideas. "Can anyone repeat what Susan said so everyone can hear?" "Does anyone agree or disagree? If so, please share your thoughts." "Does anyone want to add on? "Can someone please elaborate upon Miguel's response?"

- Careful and respectful listening to one other
- Using and building on/elaborating upon one another's' ideas
- Paraphrasing and seeking clarification
- Respectful disagreement
- Using sentence stems/frames/prompts

Accountable to Accurate Knowledge is about what students discuss. They respond/make claims and try to be as specific and accurate as possible. "Can you show me how you got that answer?" "What is your basis for that conclusion?" "Where did you see that in the text?" So, Accountability to Accurate Knowledge is about getting the facts straight—individually and as a community.

- Being as specific and accurate as possible
- Resisting the urge to say just "anything that comes to mind."
- Getting the facts straight
- Challenging questions that require textual evidence

Accountable to Rigorous Thinking is about using that accurate knowledge to build a logical and coherent line of argument. Students use sound reasoning, as well as evidence, to back up their claims. "Since you seem to disagree with what is stated in the text, what lead you to change your view?" "What's your reasoning behind that explanation?"

- Building arguments
- Linking claims and evidence in logical ways
- Working to make statements clear
- Checking the quality of claims and arguments

COLLINS WRITING PROGRAM

Five Types of Writing

Type 1: Capture Ideas

Type One writing gets ideas on paper—brainstorming. Type One is timed and requires a minimum number of items or lines. Questions and/or guesses are permitted. Evaluated with a check (✔) or minus (-). One draft.

Type 2: Respond Correctly

Type Two writing shows that the writer knows something about a topic or has thought about the topic. It is a correct answer to a specific question, graded as a quiz. One draft.

Type 3: Edit for FCAs

Type Three writing has substantive content and meets up to three specific standards called focus correction areas. It is read out loud and reviewed to see if the draft meets the following criteria: completes the assignment, is easy to read, and meets standards set by the focus correction areas. Revision and editing are done on the original. One draft.

Type 4: Peer Edit for FCAs

Type Four writing is Type Three writing that is read out loud and critiqued by another. Two drafts.

Type 5: Publish

Type Five writing is error free and of publishable quality. Multiple drafts.

For All Types

For all types, skip lines. For Types One and Two, label the type on top left-hand side of paper. For Types Three and Four, list focus correction areas on top left-hand side. Type Three and Four papers should be saved and used to practice editing skills.

Frequently Asked Questions FAQ

1. How do I decide what to teach in English and what to teach in Spanish?

- ✓ Please refer to the units of study chart
- Consider carefully the intellectual demand of concepts, students' familiarity with concepts in the home language or English, and the academic language required for using and mastering concepts.

2. Are the content areas taught in both English and Spanish?

✓ Yes, bilingual teachers are encouraged to use the Preview, View, Review method of instruction. That is, you may introduce a lesson in L1, teach it in L2, and review it in L1. Regardless of their proficiency level, students of English need to be exposed to academic language in English and Spanish.

3. What do I do if a student who does not speak Spanish is placed in my bilingual class?

- ✓ Reach out to the student's guidance counselor so he/she can access the student's CUM Folder for correct placement.
- ✓ Inform your Department Chairperson and/or building principal and the Bilingual/ENL Office.

4. How do I share instructional responsibilities using the Co-Teaching Model?

✓ Please refer to the Co-Teaching Handbook for Teachers of English Language Learners.

Resources - Glossaries for ELLs/MLLs Accommodations

https://steinhardt.nyu.edu/metrocenter/resources/glossaries

These glossaries are to PROVIDE PERMITTED TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS of ELL/MLL students. They should also be used for INSTRUCTION during the school year. These glossaries may be downloaded, printed and disseminated to educators, parents and ELLs/MLLs.

Bilingual glossaries are an essential and expected test accommodation for ELLs/MLLs in the State of New York. The languages of these glossaries cover the top 10 languages at the state level, with new languages added based on changing language populations in the NY State student demographic data.

Schools should provide testing accommodations to ELLs/MLLs, as needed, on all NYS ELA and content-area assessments (i.e., Mathematics, Science and Social Studies). Districts/schools must make all necessary arrangements to make these accommodations available for ELLs/MLLs who need them. Please click here for the New York State Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages Webpage on "Assessment and Testing Accommodations".

Your Child's 2014-15 New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT)

For the parent or guardian of: XXXXXX Local Student ID: ######## Assessment Grade: XXXXXX School: XXXXXX BEDS Code: ########

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Each spring, English Language Learners in Kindergarten through Grade 12 take part in the New York State English as a Second Language Achievement Test (NYSESLAT) as required by the Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). This year, a new version of the NYSESLAT was introduced reflecting New York's new learning standards and updated English language proficiency levels. Prior to the spring 2015 NYSESLAT, the proficiency levels were Beginning, Intermediate, Advanced, and Proficient. Starting with the spring 2015 NYSESLAT, the new proficiency levels are Entering, Emerging, Transitioning, Expanding, and Commanding. This report explains your child's scores and level.

NYSESLAT scores and levels provide one of a variety of ways for parents and educators to understand a child's English language development. You are encouraged to use this report to discuss your child's proficiency in the English language with your child's teachers and/or school officials. If you would like more information about your child's performance on this year's test, please contact your child's school. Thank you for your continued partnership in your child's education.

For more information regarding the NYSESLAT, please see the resources located online at: https://www.engageny.org/resource/spring-2015-nyseslat-resources.

Your Child's Total Score and English Language Proficiency Level

Total Scale Score

State Percentile Rank*

Your Child's Overall Proficiency Level is

"Your child's score on the NYSESLAT was the same or higher than ## percent of all students statewide in your child's grade who took this test.

In order to be considered Commanding (Proficient), students must meet two requirements: (1) their total scale score must be in the "Commanding" range, and (2) their scale score for each modality (Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing) must be at or above the minimum scale score required for an overall proficiency level of "Commanding." Thus, it is possible for a student's proficiency level to be Expanding even if their total scale score meets the Commanding range. In these cases, please refer to page two of this report and see the column entitled "Met Score for Commanding" for a "Yes" or "No." if applicable, this column will show you the modality (Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing) for which your child did not earn the required score

Differences in students which may affect English language development (e.g., level of ELL services and level of literacy in home language) should be considered when interpreting scores.

These results cannot be compared directly to results from previous years.

Entering

A student at the Entering level has great dependence on supports and structures to advance his or her academic language skills. As measured by the NYSESLAT, a student at this level has yet to meet the linguistic demands necessary to demanstrate proficiency in a variety of academic contexts within this grade level

(Beginning)

Emerging

(Low Intermediate)

A student at the Emerging level has some dependence on supports and structures to advance his or her academic language skills. As measured by the NYSESLAT, a student at this level has yet to meet the Inguistic demands necessary to demonstrate proficiency in a variety of academic contexts within this grade level.

Transitioning

(Intermediate) A student at the Transitioning level shows some independence in advancing his or her academic language skills. As measured by the NYSESLAT, a student at this level has yet to meet the linguistic demands gecessary to demonstrate proficiency in a variety of academic contexts within this grade level.

Expanding

(Advanced) A student at the Expanding

level shows great independence in advancing his or her academic language skills. As measured by the NYSESLAT, a student at this level is approaching the linguistic demands necessary to demonstrate proficiency in a variety of academic contexts within this grade level.

Commanding

(Proficient)

A student at the Commanding level is now designated as a Former ELL, and entitled to receive two years of continued ELL services. As measured by the NYSESLAY, a student this level has met the linguistic demands necessary to demonstrate proficiency in a variety of academic contexts within this grade level.

More about the NYSESLAT score for

School Student ID Assessment Grade

The NYSESLAT measures four different language areas: Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing. The test is a combination of multiple-choice listening and reading questions, as well as speaking and writing responses. The NYSESLAT measures a student's ability to use academic English to succeed in classroom instruction. Your child's scores are provided below to assist you in understanding the degree to which your child is proficient in Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing. For comparison with students across New York State within your child's grade level, you will also find the State average scale score for each modality.

What's Next?

If your child scored at the "Commanding" (Proficient) English language proficiency level, he/she is no longer considered an English Language Learner (ELL), but is entitled to continue to receive Former ELL services and accommodations on State assessments for the next two school years. Former ELL services for these next two years will be determined by your child's teachers and/or school officials.

If your child scored "Entering" (Beginning), "Emerging" (Low Intermediate), "Transitioning" (Intermediate), or "Expanding" (Advanced), he/she is entitled to participate in a Bilingual Education and/or an English as a New Language (ENL) Program. Please see the chart below for the amount of time your child is entitled to according to his/her English language proficiency level:

Learning Disabilities and Language Acquisition

Ideas to consider when suspecting a learning disability:

- Hypothesis that the causes of the student's learning difficulties are primarily external factors until data suggest otherwise and all plausible external factors have been ruled out.
- There are no tests that can definitively reveal whether a student has LD.
- Determine if instruction is appropriate. If most ELLs/MLLs or similar peers are thriving, then it is likely that instruction is appropriate. Conversely, if most ELLs/MLLs are showing little progress, then instruction needs to be changed to better meet their language and learning needs.

| Some Similarities Between LD and Language Acquisition | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| Behaviors Associated w/ LD | Behaviors when Acquiring an L2 | | | |
| Difficulty following directions | Difficulty following directions because the directions were not well understood; it can be harder to remember directions in a second language. | | | |
| Difficulty with phonological awareness | Difficulty auditorily distinguishing between sounds not in one's first language, or sounds that are presented in a different order. | | | |
| Slow to learn sound-symbol correspondence | Confusion with sound-symbol correspondence when it is different than in one's first language. Difficulty pronouncing sounds not in the first language. | | | |
| Difficulty remembering sight words | Difficulty remembering sight words when word meanings are not understood. | | | |
| Difficulty retelling a story in sequence | Difficulty retelling a story in English without the expressive skills to do so; yet the student might understand more than s/he can convey (i.e., receptive skills in English might be stronger than expressive skills). | | | |
| Confusion with figurative language | Confusion with figurative language, idioms, pronouns, conjunctions, and words with multiple meanings. | | | |
| Slow to process challenging language | Slow to process challenging language because it is not well understood. | | | |
| May have poor auditory memory | May seem to have poor auditory memory if sounds or words are unfamiliar or not well understood. | | | |
| May have difficulty concentrating | Learning in a second language is mentally exhausting; therefore, ELLs may seem to have difficulty concentrating at times. | | | |
| May seem easily frustrated | Learning in a second language can be frustrating. | | | |

Example of a Written Rationale A

Student: John Doe
I.D#: 123456
School: Loretta Park
Teacher: Jane Smith
Date: April 20, 2014
Ref: New Referral

- John is a kind boy who demonstrates good effort in class. His social strengths are that he works well with others (particularly partnerships) and he treats others with respect. He demonstrates command of BICS in English and communicates his ideas clearly. Academically, he demonstrates strength in math in the area of simple computation. In reading, he successfully uses pictures to sequence and answer questions with evidence, and make inferences using background knowledge. John enjoys non-fiction stories, particularly about science, and when stories are read aloud (when he is focused), he is eager to participate to share ideas and recall details.
- John needs a lot of support in the reading areas of decoding, fluency, and comprehension. John began the school year reading at level B in English and A in Spanish. He demonstrates more verbal command and understanding of information in English so remediation strategies in the area of reading have been provided in this language. John also receives small group remediation in math to provide support with number concepts such as place value, number patterns and comparisons. I also sit with John three times a week during writing to help him plan and write his ideas. We practice sounding out words as he writes and re-planning sentences by re-reading his work to help him remember his ideas.
- In the area of reading for the first two semesters, John was working in a small group of six students that also needed extra support in the areas of decoding, fluency, and comprehension. Like the other students in this group, John practiced individualized kindergarten and first grade sight words (based on high frequency word assessments), reviewed all sight and story words for each book read daily, and read books with one or two lines of text alongside detailed pictures or photographs. This group also focused on word-solving strategies such as segmenting, chunking, pictures clues (along with first letter sounds), and constant monitoring ("Does this sound right? Does it make sense?") This group was also assigned a modified word study list each week for the spelling pattern studied whole class (5 words instead of 10). All grade 2 level benchmark assessments have been read aloud to this group in order to better assess reading comprehension and determine specific skills for future focus. Most of the students have shown differing amounts of progress since the first semester (increasing between 2 to 6 reading levels), and groups have been restructured in order to focus on the students' individual needs.
- Despite these interventions strategies, John has remained at a reading level B in English (as of his March Fountas and Pinnell guided reading assessment). I feel that the intervention strategies used were ineffective because the reading group was too large for him. As further discussed below, John's difficulty to maintain focus and retain and apply strategies has kept him from benefiting from a small group that "large". He continues to need support with one to one word correspondence and sight word recognition, as he tends to depend greatly on segmenting as a decoding strategy.
- John has been receiving RTI services since March 26, 2014, the date of our first meeting. The focus of the intervention services provided is sight word recognition and retention. John's group now consists of 2 students instead of 6 and he learns 6 new sight words each week (in addition to cumulative review). The methods used are flash card concentration, word building with magnetic letters and dictation for writing. John is tested each Friday using the same list of the first 50 high frequency words and has increased by 11 words. He sometimes misreads words of which he had previously demonstrated mastery but has begun to self-correct. He practices one to one word correspondence as text is read chorally and continues to demonstrate comprehension skills using picture cues. His parents and doctor have requested an academic evaluation for John and the process has been explained to him.

- In the area of math, John continues to receive AIS services inside the classroom each day in addition to the lesson presented. Re-teach and RTI pages are used in small group work and manipulatives when applicable (he tends to become very distracted with these and they therefore do not support learning effectively.) John demonstrates inconsistent progress in these areas as summative assessments are usually in text format with a lot of information on a page and extensive questions. I modify his work when possible. I continue to sit with John during writing. He is now demonstrating phonemic (as opposed to emerging) writing conventions and is beginning to work with more independence and less opposition. He used to copy words from the walls but now he is writing short stories, which is good progress. He still needs support with letter formation and how to use line space an area where he is resistant to change his habits.
- In terms of his behavior, John has extreme difficulty focusing and sitting still, even working one on one with me. He often plays with a pencil between his fingers and tells me he does so because "His head feels crazy." One to one correspondence is difficult, as well as letter formation and letter order in simple word recognition. John jumps instead of walking in the hall, tends to bump into others, and does not acknowledge personal space on the carpet. John's father has taken him to different doctors (clinician, neurologist) for evaluation, and also has tried vitamins to support focus. I filled out an ADHD survey and sent it home and continue to await the results (diagnosis). John has told me he is concerned that "He is going to doctors and they cannot find anything." His father and I meet often and he has requested a formal academic evaluation.

For the reasons listed above, I feel John should continue to receive ESL support.

Example of a Written Rationale B

Student: John Doe I.D#: 123456

School: Northeast Elem.
Teacher: Jane Smith
Date: January 14, 2013
Ref: New Referral

- John has been an ELL/MLL student for the past two years. In Kindergarten, he was receiving bilingual services. This year, as a first grader, John is receiving ESL services. He is an intermediate ESL student attending ESL five times a week for a total of 360 minutes. On his most recent NYSESLAT Exam (April 2013) he scored the following: Listening-20, Speaking-23, Reading-10, & Writing-7. His environment in ESL consists of a small group instruction with a total of three students. Within our small group setting, he is self-motivated and willing to participate. John is a respectable student who always follows instructions. He is eager to please and always tries his best.
- However, even with just three students we have established a time for John to work one-on-one with an adult to reinforce lessons, strategies, skills, and to assist him in completing the task at hand. His confidence and strength is evident when instruction is one-on-one, interaction is verbal, lessons are modeled and scaffolded, and visuals are being used. I must add that John feels proud and a sense of accomplishment when assignments are finished.
- Writing: With writing, we are constantly focused on two objectives. Our goal has been to teach to write organized simple sentences while using proper sentence structure. However, at times John needs to be reminded of capitals and periods. In addition, his sentences are usually difficult to understand because of his omitted words and invented spelling. There is no sound/symbol relationship in his spelling and words are usually way off. The words John usually spells correctly are simple sight words, such as the, to, & of to name a few. Also, if left independently, expressing ideas on paper seems to be a struggle and his assignments are usually not completed. In order to complete assignments, the majority of his writing activities have been modified and assisted by me or my T.A. on a one-to-one basis.
- Reading: John is currently reading and comprehending on a KNDG level. His independent F&P level is a "C." While reading on his level, John is able to understand the gist of the story. However, he does not read with confidence or accuracy. When challenged by a word, his decoding is weak. John guesses on difficult words instead of using strategies being taught. Usually his guess is way off and the word does not make sense in the sentence. To assist John with tricky words, we have taught him to use beginning and ending sounds, blends, digraphs, chunks, context clues, and illustrations. For comprehension, I always provide him with an overview of the text, vocabulary words are discussed, and a purpose is always set.
 - Also, John is taught pre-reading strategies, such as using background knowledge, making predictions, asking questions, and scanning the book.
- Listening: I feel that John is inconsistent when it comes to listening. During good days, John understands the task at hand, is able to follow directions, pays very close attention in class, participates a lot more, and is able to retain information from one day to the next. Unfortunately, there are days when John has difficulty staying focused. During these days, he fails to pay attention to the lesson, is unable to follow single or multi-step directions, and is unable to recall recent information. Usually, directions and instruction need to be explained or simplified.
- Speaking: With speaking, John needs to improve his academic and verbal expression. At times, his ability to communicate and fully express his ideas is hindered. He does not clearly articulate or express his ideas well to peers or adults. He seems to pause to gather his thoughts before speaking. It seems as though he has a constant battle/struggle with what he says and wants to say.

Pre-Conference Discussion

Agenda and Meeting Notes

Both evaluator and teacher should review the following questions prior to the pre-conference. For the teacher, the "preview" will spur more informed preparation of the lesson plan and other artifacts, and set the stage for what to expect during the pre-conference. For the evaluator, the questions help to frame the range of evidence one might expect to help to frame the range of evidence one might expect to collect through the review of the lesson plan, other artifacts of teacher practice, and in conversation with the teacher being evaluated.

- Identify the curriculum standards to be taught and how they connect to other standards within or outside of the discipline. (2,4)
- How has student achievement data informed your instruction, and how does this lesson specifically address the needs identified from a review of the data? (1,3,2.5, 5.2)
- What do you want students to learn as a result of this lesson? (2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5)
- How will you know if students are learning the expected outcome? (5.1, 5.2)
- How do you plan to cognitively engage students in the content? What will you do? What will the students do? (2.2, 2.3, 2.5, 2.6)
- How will differentiation be used to meet student needs? (2.3, 2.4, 2.6, 5.1, 5.2)
- What assessments will be used? (5.1)
- How will you use the results of assessments to adjust instruction? (5.2)
- On what areas would you like specific feedback?

PARENTS' BILL OF RIGHTS FOR NEW YORK STATE'S ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) Commissioner Regulations Part 154 provides you – the parents/guardians of English Language Learners (ELLs) – with:

- The right for your children to receive a free public education in the school district where you live, regardless of your or your children's immigration status (e.g., whether your family members are citizens, immigrants, or undocumented) and the language that you or your children speak.
- The right to enroll your children in school without being asked to provide information or paperwork which may reveal your or your children's immigration status. You cannot be asked to provide a social security card or number, an immigration visa or visa status, or citizenship documents or citizenship status.
- The right under federal law to have a qualified interpreter/translator in your preferred language for critical interactions with the school district.
- The right to have your children in a Bilingual Education (BE) program when there are 20 or more grade-level students that speak the same home/primary language.
- The right to written notice in English and your preferred language that your children have been identified as ELLs and will be placed in a Bilingual Education or English as a New Language (formerly called English as a Second Language) program.²
- 6. The right to a high quality orientation session, provided by your school district, that focuses on state standards, tests, and school expectations for ELLs, as well as the program goals and requirements for Bilingual Education and English as a New Language. This orientation must occur before final school program placement, and must be in your preferred language.
- The right to receive information about your children's English language development, and also about their home language development if they are in a Bilingual Education program.
- The right to meet with school staff at least once a year, in addition to other generally required meetings, to discuss your children's overall learning and language development progress.
- The right for your children to be placed in a Bilingual Education or English as a New Language program within 10 days of enrollment, and the right to opt out of a Bilingual Education program. At a minimum, your children must receive English as a New Language instruction.

- The right for your children to transfer to another school in your district that offers Bilingual Education in your language, if your children's original school does not offer such a program.
- 11. The right for your children to have equal access to all programming and services offered by the school district, appropriate to age and grade level including those required for graduation, and to all school programs available to other students.
- 12. The right for your children to receive all core content instruction, and to learn English and other subjects such as Reading/Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies at the same academic level as all other children. Being entitled to ELL services does not limit the ability to get core content instruction.
- 13. The right for your children to have full access to extracurricular activities (afterschool clubs, sports, etc.). Being entitled to ELL services does not limit the ability to take part in extracurricular activities.
- The right for your children to get support services (e.g., Academic Intervention Services) aligned with any intervention plans that the school/district provides to all students.
- 15. The right to have your children tested yearly to determine their English language progress, and to obtain information about your children's performance on academic tests, including New York State tests.
- 16. The right to have your children continuously enrolled year to year in a Bilingual Education or English as a New Language program while they remain ELLs.
- 17. The right to contact the New York State Education Department's Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages if any of the above rights have been violated.

Please call the ELL Parent Hotline at 1-800-469-8224, or email: nysparenthotline@nyu.edu For more information visit: www.p12.nysed.gov/biling or write to:

New York State Education Department Office of Bilingual Education & World Languages 55 Hanson Place, Room 594 Brooklyn, NY 11217

In New York City, per the Aspira Consent Decree, a BE program is required in grades K-8 if 15 or more grade-level students speak the same language in two contiguous grades. If there is not a sufficient number of qualitying students in a school, but there are within its district, the district must provide a BE program.

² All ELLs develop their English skills through "English as a New Language" courses. In addition, those in a Bilingual Education program also take Home Language Arts. Core content area courses (i.e., Math, Science, and Social Studies) are offered in a Bilingual Education program in both English and their home language. Those who are not in a Bilingual Education program take core content area courses in English.
